

DISCLAIMER

The data subject acknowledges that the Department of Trade and Industry (“the dti”) has taken all adequate and reasonable measures in order to protect the data subjects’ personal information. The data subject further acknowledges that the dti accepts no liability for any damages, of whatsoever nature, which may result from the unlawful interception, storage, access and/or dissemination of the data subject’s personal information, as a result of the data subject using this platform and/or submitting personal information.

The data subject understands that in order to enable the dti to execute the objective in relation to which the data subject’s personal information was submitted, it may be necessary to process and further process the data user’s personal information; this may include, but are not limited to, requiring third parties to process the data user’s personal information. The data subject hereby consents to the dti processing and, if necessary, further processing the data subject’s personal information. In relation to this platform, the personal information will be processed as follows. (Link to be provided in which the responsible party set out the processing of the personal data).

The data subject further understands that the dti does not have any control over and accordingly does not accept any liability in relation to the security of the data subject’s personal information in the event that such personal information is processed by third parties. the dti undertakes to ensure that third parties, who are required to process the data subject’s personal information, provide the dti with an undertaking that the third party has adequate and reasonable measures in place to ensure the security of the data subject’s personal information.

The data subject understands that it may be necessary, where there has been a material change in relation to the personal information, submitted on this platform, that it is incumbent on the data subject to update the data subject’s personal information. the dti accordingly accepts no liability in relation to the integrity of the data subject’s personal information, which include but are not limited to, the incorrect, deleted and/or outdated information provided by the data subject. The data subject further acknowledges that the dti has taken all adequate and reasonable measures in order to protect the integrity of the data subjects’ personal information.